MEMORANDUM FOR: Director, Intelligence Community Staff
FROM: Deputy Director of Central Intelligence
SUBJECT: Out-Year NFIP Funding

At breakfast with the Secretary of Defense on 2 March I raised the problem about out-year funding. I noted for the Secretary that this might come up during his budget hearings as it did mine. I said my response was that historically the wedge for intelligence in the FYDP never included enough for intelligence [redacted]

[redacted] His response was that he believes intelligence is essential and he will make sure Defense satisfies our honest needs. I told him I quoted him as feeling that "intelligence is a force multiplier." He said he liked that and would adopt it.
